

Ransomed Heart Ranch & Open Range Fellowship

PRESENT

Reality Barrel Racing Clinics

with

Dawn Dawson

October 17, 2009

Ride with Dawn Dawson in a one-day barrel racing and horsemanship clinic offered through Ransomed Heart Ranch and Open Range Fellowship in Lone Jack, Missouri.

Dawn is a Regional Ambassador for Purina Mills LLC; she is the State Director for the Kansas National Barrel Horse Association, and is Co-Host of the Better Horses Radio Show. Dawn has offered demonstrations and private lessons in barrel racing and horsemanship throughout the Midwest and was a featured clinician at Equifest of Kansas and the Arizona Horse Festival. Dawn's clinics offer barrel racing tips and advice for the horse and rider of all ages and levels of competition including:

- Individual & Group Work
- One-on-One Work with You and Your Horse
- Instructional Videos & Video Replay
- Motivational Talks & Demonstrations
- Equipment Evaluation

Purina Mills, LLC

Ransomed Heart Ranch is a beautiful indoor riding facility so this clinic will be rain or shine. Clinic fees are $185.00 for a full-day's clinic (8:30 a.m. until done Saturday night after Cowboy Church). For registration information, contact Dawn Dawson at 785-765-2357 or e-mail at kscowboy@kansas.net

Spectators are invited to attend at no charge. Concessions will be available.

Special Entertainment Saturday Evening

Join us for Cowboy Church Saturday evening at the Open Range Fellowship with Cowboy Poet and Western Entertainer, Geff Dawson & Open Range Fellowship's Frank Slaughter. Everyone is invited to attend the Saturday evening Cowboy Church for great entertainment, fellowship and fun during the dinner break of the clinic.

CLINIC IS LIMITED TO 25 STUDENTS--Don't Miss Out--ENROLL NOW