Sonja Vracko has been a competitor, trainer, Judge and clinician in Canada, Germany and the US since the Seventies.

Sonja has competed, trained and judged through the Grand Prix level.

Born in Germany, She has studied with Willi Schultheis and in Switzerland with Christine Stückelberger and Georg Wahl, in Lipica with Ducan Mavec.

Sonja began teaching in the United States in 1969. She created View Ridge Farm Equestrian Center in 1978, where to this day she trains riders and horses through all levels.

During Yearly horse purchasing trips for clients, Sonja keeps up with her education and rides with some of the top European trainers. She also hosts clinics at her farm with well renowned European Clinicians.

On a personal note-Sonja is an artist who excels in multiple artistic mediums, such as Clay Sculptures and Painting. She also welds and forges to make expressive metal sculptures and recently took up Digital Art Photography.

Sonja is a firm believer in staying physically fit and achieves this through biking, Yoga and Tai-Chi and of course daily riding when she is not traveling to judge or give clinics.

See attached application for clinic entry!
